Transit in Dubai for onward flight to Birmingham. Transfer by coach to Coventry. Guided tour Coventry Cathedral and surrounds.

Fri 4 Oct – COVENTRY

After breakfast a full day excursion to Shakespeare's Stratford as well as the Norman era Warwick Castle. This evening enjoy a welcome dinner with fellow travellers. (B,D)

Sat 5 Oct – YORK 2 nights

We depart today for York visiting Chatsworth House and Gardens en-route. (B)

Sun 6 Oct - YORK

First up you will explore ancient York visiting York Minster, explore the Shambles and perhaps visit the Jarvis Viking Centre and Castle Museum. (B)

Mon 7 Oct – LAKE DISTRICT

This morning you will journey from York to the Lake District in Cumbria. A popular haunt for Britain's best loved artists and poets, the Lake District really is a jewel in the English crown. Lofty peaks, idyllic villages, tranquil lakes and award winning gardens confirm why the Lake District is often referred to as the 'most beautiful corner of England'. This afternoon is free for you to explore at your leisure. (B)

Tue 8 Oct – EDINBURGH 2 nights

On route to Edinburgh we visit Chester's Roman Fort and discover the best visible remains of a cavalry fort in Britain. The fort was built to guard the Roman bridge carrying Hadrian's Wall over the River North Tyne. Edinburgh is one of the worlds' finest cities. Its magnificent architecture shifts from the lofty buildings of its medieval Old Town, as they tumble down the Royal Mile to the graceful houses of the Georgian New Town. This afternoon you will enjoy an orientation tour of this historic city. (B,D)

Wed 9 Oct – EDINBURGH

This morning you will visit Edinburgh Castle, the medieval fortress which dominates the city's skyline. Perched on an extinct volcano and offering stunning views, this instantly recognisable fortress is a powerful national symbol and part of Edinburgh's World Heritage site. The rest of the day is at leisure. (B)

Thu 10 Oct – LOCH NESS 1 night

This morning you will head northwards to the Scottish Highlands. On the way you will stop at the tempting House of Bruar. Later you will visit Urquhart Castle situated strategically on a natural trade route. Overnight at Loch Ness. (B,D)

Fri 11 Oct – LOCH LOMOND 1 night

There is another day of stunning highland scenery today as you travel via Fort Williams to the evocative Loch Lomond. There will be ample opportunity for photo taking and exploring. (B,D)

Sat 12 Oct – BELFAST 3 nights

A fast ferry will cover the distance between Scotland and Northern Ireland so as to allow you to enjoy a guided tour of the capital of this region, Belfast, before checking into your hotel. (B,D)

Sun 13 Oct – BELFAST

Today you'll join your local guide for a city tour and later a visit to Titanic Belfast, a monument to Belfast's maritime heritage where RMS Titanic was built. (B)

Mon 14 Oct - BELFAST

This morning you will join an excursion to the Antrim Coast. Here you will visit the most famous natural wonder of Ireland and a UNESCO World Heritage site – The Giant's Causeway. Legend has it that it was built by a Giant! Later, the more adventurous in the group will dare to cross over the Carrick-a-rede Rope Bridge. (B)

Tue 15 Oct – DUBLIN 2 nights

The drive from Northern to Southern Ireland will take you through the Boyne Valley where some of the oldest burial sites in this part of Europe are to be found. They are 500 years older than the pyramids and 1000 years earlier than Stonehenge. Here you will visit the one of the best examples of a 'passage tomb' in Europe. (B)

Wed 16 Oct – DUBLIN

Today you will be taken on a panoramic sightseeing tour of lively Dublin. Your tour will include a visit to Trinity College to view the Book of Kells and the magnificent Library. The afternoon is at leisure for further exploring. In the evening it's all about Irish fun. Enjoy the craic at a Highlight Evening including dinner and Irish entertainment! (B,D)

Thu 17 Oct – GALWAY 2 nights

Depart for Galway, via Clonmacnoise, one of the most important monastic sites in Ireland. St. Ciaran founded this great monastery in 548-9. In Galway enjoy a panoramic City Tour that will include St. Nicholas Church, Old Quays and the Claddagh. (B)

Fri 18 Oct – GALWAY

Depart for a full day tour of Connemara, land of lakes and rivers and mountains. A land of small villages where Gaelic is still the spoken language. Connemara is a vast peninsular bordered by the arid and rocky coastline of Galway Bay in the south – a land characteristic for its stone walls and thatched cottages. On the northern side the land is harsh and secluded, with views of the Ocean and the fjord of Killary Harbour, this nine mile long inlet boasts some of the finest scenery in Western Ireland. Here you will board your vessel for a scenic cruise. (B)

England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales and Republic of Ireland.

Sat 19 Oct – KILLARNEY 2 nights

Depart for Kerry by driving through The Burren region, which forms 100 square kilometres of National Park. Also on route, stop at the Cliffs of Moher, situated on the Atlantic Ocean. Standing 230 metres above the sea at their highest point and 8km long, the Cliffs boast one of the most amazing views of Ireland. Continue to Killarney. (B)

Sun 20 Oct - KILLARNEY

Depart for the Ring of Kerry tour, which will include the Iveragh Peninsula. You take in the spectacular scenery, mountains, peat bogs, lakes and magnificent views of the Atlantic Ocean as you travel along the coast road. (B)

Mon 21 Oct – WATERFORD 1 night

Depart for Waterford via Macroom. Visit Blarney Castle one of Ireland's oldest and most historic castles. It is famous for its Blarney stone – the Stone of Eloquence, which is traditionally believed to have the power to bestow the gift of eloquence on all those who kiss it. Spend some time shopping at Blarney Woollen Mills. Continue to Waterford where you will visit the city & the Waterford Crystal visitor centre. (B)
